About Tai O Heritage Hotel

Perched on a small hill of the waterfront sidewalk of Shek Tsai Po Street, Tai O Heritage Hotel, graded as a Grade II historic building by the Antiquities Advisory Board, is a collaborative revitalisation project between Development Bureau of Hong Kong Special Administrative Region and the non-profit social enterprise, Hong Kong Heritage Conservation Foundation Limited (HCF). It has been conserved and transformed from the century-old Tai O Police Station constructed in 1902, a historic landmark in the culture-rich Tai O fishing village on Lantau Island. Surrounded by lush greenery, it is now home to nine colonial-style rooms, Heritage Interpretation Centre and a glass-roofed open view restaurant, Tai O Lookout, which serves as a platform to showcase Hong Kong and Tai O artists' ingenious creations.

The tour will begin at the Heritage Interpretation Centre, with a short video telling the stories of the Old Tai O Police Station and how it has been revitalised as Tai O Heritage Hotel, followed by a visit to the former Inspectors' Quarters, Guard Tower and the rooftop restaurant. Each guest can learn about the original use of the rooms and explore the history of the marine guards and the tranquil fishing village. We also invited the core hotel operation management team to share their valuable experience in project and operation management with our members.

Speakers:

1. Mr Frankie Lui – General Manager, Tai O Heritage Hotel
2. Ms Iris Wong – Project Committee, Hong Kong Heritage Conservation Foundation Limited
3. Mr Mike Fan – Project Engineer, Tai O Heritage Hotel
4. Ms Winnie Yeung – Manager, Hong Kong Heritage Conservation Foundation Limited
